

ISCC Stakeholder Meeting “Sustainable Marine Fuels”

24 May 2022

Virtual Meeting
2 – 4 pm (Central European Summer Time)

Content:

A view on regulatory frameworks and the big picture

Perspectives from different major stakeholders

Sustainability certification of marine fuels

Stakeholder discussion and next steps

ISCC Stakeholder Meeting “Sustainable Marine Fuels”

AGENDA

Virtual Meeting

2 – 4 pm (Central European Summer Time, UTC +2)

Moderation: ISCC

24 May 2022

Time	Topic	Who
02.00 – 02.10 pm	Welcome	Gernot Klepper , Kiel Institute for the World Economy, Chairman of the ISCC Board, Germany
Regulatory framework and the big picture
02.10 – 02.25 pm	Towards a net-zero future for the maritime sector	Sara Åhlén Björk , Chief Economist, Mærsk Mc-Kinney Møller Center for Zero Carbon Shipping, Denmark
02.25 – 02.40 pm	Updates on the FuelEU Maritime regulation	Ricardo Batista , Policy Officer DG-Move, EU Commission, Belgium
Perspectives on the development of a low-carbon maritime sector
02.40 – 02.55 pm	Experiences and challenges of supplying low-carbon marine fuels	Martin Verle , Marine Technical Fuels Lead, BP, United Kingdom
02.55 – 03.10 pm	State of affairs and future trends – perspectives from a global shipping and logistics company	Giovanna Croyatto Vega , Decarbonisation LCA Specialist, Mærsk, Denmark
03.10 – 03.25 pm	Leveraging sustainable marine fuels to support corporate sustainability goals	Ana Flávia Velloso , Global Sustainability Developer, IKEA Supply, Switzerland
03.25 – 03.40 pm	Certification as a crucial element for sustainable marine fuels	Thomas Bock , System Manager, ISCC System, Germany
03.40 – 04.00 pm	Stakeholder discussion and next steps	All

